SCHOOL SAFETY ADVOCACY COUNCIL CORPORATE PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

The School Safety Advocacy Council (SSAC), the recognized national leader in school safety services and training, was established in 2004 with the goal of providing the highest quality school safety consulting, training, and emergency management services to school districts, law enforcement agencies and communities.

The School Safety Advocacy Council is the host of the largest conference in the nation addressing all aspects of school safety, the Annual National School Safety Conference and Exposition, which in 2024 will be our twentieth anniversary conference. As part of our effort to include all stakeholders in solutions we partner with D.A.R.E, and the National Association of School and Campus Police Chiefs for this annual conference, which draws approximately 1,400 professionals from around the world. In addition to the National School Safety Conference, we are also the host of the National Conference on Active School Threats, which we will host three across the nation in 2024, and the National School Safety Executive Leadership Academy, both focused on education and law enforcement working together to improve school safety and emergency response. We are the only school safety organization to be selected to proudly partner with the Federal Bureau of Investigations National Academy Associates (FBINA) to present active school shooter training nationwide.

The School Safety Advocacy Council partners with some of the largest school districts in the nation and has become the “go-to” experts in assisting school districts, law enforcement agencies, and communities improve their school safety. Having successfully partnered with districts such as Los Angeles Unified School District (1st largest district in nation), Clark County School District (4th largest district in nation), Hawaii Department of Education (13th largest school district in the nation), Wake County Public Schools (14th largest district in nation), and Washoe County School District (59th largest district in nation) exemplifies the reach and reputation the School Safety Advocacy Council possess.

Our team strives to make certain that your investment in becoming a School Safety Partner brings you the visibility and competitive edge your organization/company deserves. Imagine, your CEO/President welcoming our attendees on a National Stage? Your Corporate Banners and Logos displayed on the Schoolsafety911.org website? An article announcing your becoming an Approved School Safety Partner, e-mailed out to over 100,000 school safety professionals? This is just a small part of what becoming a “Approved School Safety Partner” includes.

CONTRACT FOR SPACE By completing the registration for Exhibit Space for the 2025 National School Safety Conference, the company, organization, association and management company (collectively referred to as “exhibitor” or “exhibit”), acknowledge they have fully read and agree to comply with all information provided in the Exhibitor Prospectus, as well as related procedures, forms and communications. Completion of the registration process represents a firm and binding contract with the understanding and agreement to abide by all rules, regulations and conditions of SSAC and the conference venue. Failure to abide by such rules and regulations result in forfeiture of all monies paid or due to SSAC.

CANCELLATIONS AND REDUCTIONS Cancellations must be made in writing and sent to School Safety Advocacy Council, PO Box 1225 Salem, NH 03079 Any exhibitor who wishes to cancel or reduce space before April 1, 2025, will be charged 50% of the booth fee for the space reduced or the booth cancelled. Requests for cancellation or reduction of space received on or after April 1, 2025, will result in no refund.

NO SHOWS Exhibitors with reserved exhibit space, who do not inform SSAC in writing of their inability to exhibit prior to the exhibit hall opening, will, forfeit all payments for booth rental and may not be eligible to exhibit at future SSAC conferences.

RELOCATION OF EXHIBITS AND FLOOR PLAN REVISIONS SSAC reserves the exclusive right to revise the exhibit hall floor plan(s) and/or relocate any assigned exhibitors as necessary for the betterment of the event as determined solely by SSAC. .

PRESENTATION All exposed parts of displays must present an attractive appearance when viewed from the aisles or from adjoining exhibits and must not be objectionable to other exhibitors or SSAC. The exhibit room is carpeted. No roofing or floor covering may be used to span an aisle without special prior permission and approval from SSAC.

SIGNAGE Exhibit signs are permitted only within the confines of the booth. SSAC strictly prohibits the display of signage of any type by exhibitors throughout the official conference hotel(s). The general contractor can handle advance orders of signs.

FIRE REGULATIONS All material used in the exhibit hall must be flameproof and fire resistant in order to conform to local fire ordinances and meet regulations established by the National Association of Fire Underwriters.

CONDUCT The conduct of each exhibit is subject to the approval of SSAC, which reserves the right to require modification of any exhibit, which, in its opinion, is not appropriate to the 2025 National School Safety Conference. This regulation also applies to displays, literature, advertising, novelties, souvenirs and the conduct of representatives, etc. All exhibitors are responsible for ensuring their representatives and/or agents adhere to all of these rules and regulations.

NOISE Electric or other mechanical apparatus must be muffled so any noise does not interfere with other exhibits. Exhibit representatives must keep their messaging and voice to a level that is not disruptive to neighboring exhibits and does not discourage attendees.

EXHIBIT/PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITY · All exhibits must be constructed or arranged so as to accommodate their visitors within the booth area. Aisles must be kept free of obstructions. · No person, firm or agency who is not an official exhibitor may display or demonstrate products or services, solicit orders or distribute advertising material within any facility contracted by SSAC for its 2025 National School Safety Conference. · Subletting, assignment or apportionment of the whole or any part of space by an exhibitor is prohibited. No exhibitor may permit any other party to exhibit any goods or services other than those manufactured or handled by the contracting exhibitor in its space nor permit the solicitation of business by others within that space. · No exhibitor may enter another exhibitor’s booth without permission. · Each exhibiting company has only a terminable license to exhibit. If SSAC determines that an exhibitor has failed to comply with any rule, or that the exhibit is not in good taste to SSAC, SSAC can terminate this license and close the exhibit without notice and no refund of fees will be paid.

DISTRIBUTION OF MATERIALS No canvassing or distributing of advertising matter will be allowed outside an exhibitor’s own booth space without pre-approval by SSAC Exhibit Management. Instructions on how to submit your materials distribution request for approval will be included with your exhibit booth assignment confirmation.

PHOTOGRAPHY / VIDEOTAPING Photographing or videotaping of any SSAC conference activities is prohibited without prior written approval by SSAC. Photographing or videotaping another exhibitor’s equipment or display without that exhibitor’s permission is forbidden. SSAC, its agent or security will confiscate the recorded or captured images of any exhibitor who violates these rules. SSAC NAME AND LOGO The SSAC name and logo are the exclusive property of SSAC. They may not be used in any way, e.g. promotional literature, giveaways, by anyone else for any purpose without specific written approval from SSAC. SSAC

ENDORSEMENT Distribution of materials, brochures, samples or items and all related advertising and activities conducted during the conference does not constitute endorsement by SSAC.

EXHIBIT STAFF REGISTRATION All personnel affiliated with an exhibit must be pre-registered for an exhibitor staff badge. Instructions on how to submit your exhibitor staff badges registration are in the online registration form. Admission to the exhibit hall and sessions will be by SSAC conference badge only Each representative who is issued an exhibitor’s badge must be employed by the exhibitor. Only representatives who are employed by the exhibiting company and who will be working in the booth are to be registered for an exhibit booth staff badge. Exhibitor badges are not to be issued to registrants who should pay the registration fee.

EXHIBITOR SERVICE KITS An Exhibitor Service Kit, which includes forms for ordering the following services: furniture, electric, telephone, plants, booth cleaning, audiovisual and labor, as well as regarding shipping and material handling, will be forwarded to each exhibiting company. Online login information for the ordering of services and equipment will be included in this Exhibitor Service Kit. Booth cleaning services are the responsibility of the exhibitor. This includes vacuuming and garbage remove, which, if required, must be ordered using the form that will be provided in the Exhibitor Service Kit. RELEASE OF LIABILITY The School Safety Advocacy Council and each of their officers, directors, agents and employees (individually and collectively, the “Released Parties”) do not assume any responsibility for personal injury or death or loss or damage to property, including exhibits, equipment, personal belongings, etc. except for personal injury, death or loss or damage to property that arises from the gross negligence of the Released Parties. The exhibitor assumes entire responsibility and liability for any and all claims, losses, or damages arising out of personal injury or death or loss or damage to property, including the exhibitor’s display materials and other property, employees or contracted labor brought upon the premises and agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Released Parties against any and all claims for personal injury or death, or losses or damages to property, except such injury, death, loss or damage resulting from gross negligence or malice of Released Parties. To avoid damage to your equipment or display, please remain with your exhibit until your crates are returned and your material is packed.

INSURANCE Exhibitors who wish to insure their exhibit materials, goods and/or wares against theft, damage by fire, accident or loss of any kind, must do so at their own expense. The School Safety Advocacy Council does not carry insurance of any sort on the exhibit or other property of exhibitors and the above referenced entities assume no liability for loss or damage thereto from any cause.

INDEMNIFICATION The exhibitor agrees to indemnify, protect, save and keep the School Safety Advocacy Council (SSAC), subsidiaries and affiliates and each of their officers, directors, agents, and employees (individually and collectively the “Indemnified Parties”) forever harmless from any and all claims for personal injury or death, or losses or damages to property in connection with the exhibitor’s participation in the SSAC 2025 National School Safety Conference and any and all losses, damages or charges imposed for violation of any law or ordinance by the exhibitor or exhibitor’s employees or agents, as well as to strictly comply with the applicable terms and conditions contained in the agreement(s) regarding the exhibition premises except for any claims or losses that arise from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of SSAC. Further, exhibitors shall at all times protect, indemnify, save and keep harmless the Indemnified Parties from any and all loss, cost, damage, liability or expense which arise out of, from or by reason of any act or omission of the exhibitor or exhibitor’s employees or agents.

FORCE MAJEURE It is mutually agreed that in the event that SSAC should find it necessary to cancel or postpone the SSAC 2025 National School Safety Conference for any reason, including but not limited to low registration, disease, strikes, acts of nature, war, terrorist acts or other circumstances beyond SSAC’s control, this agreement will be terminated immediately and SSAC shall determine an equitable basis for the refund of such portion of the exhibit fees as is possible or credit towards future conference, after due consideration of expenditures and commitments already made.

CANCELLATION OF EXHIBITORS SSAC reserves the right to cancel any exhibitor from attending its conference if it deems the exhibitor is inappropriate for the participants. SSAC reserves the right to refuse any exhibit application and/or exhibitor registration.
